

THE 3 · 3 · 3 FACTOR

AND WHY IT IS IMPORTANT FOR YOU AND YOUR DOG

3D

THE FIRST THREE DAYS

- GIVE THEM SPACE
- SET YOUR BOUNDARIES EARLY
- STAY CALM AND GIVE THEM CLEAR DIRECTION
- START YOUR DAILY ROUTINE RIGHT AWAY AT HOME
- DO NOT FORCE INTERACTION
- BE PATIENT AND STAY POSITIVE

3W

AFTER THREE WEEKS

- WILL FEEL MORE SETTLED
- WILL START TO TEST BOUNDARIES
- WORK BASIC OBEDIENCE (SIT, WAIT, DOWN, COME)
- GIVE CLEAR DIRECTION AT ALL TIMES
- GIVE CALM, CLEAR FEEDBACK TO THEM WHEN THEY ARE MISBEHAVING
- PRAISE EVERY SUCCESS!

AFTER THREE MONTHS

- WILL START TO TRUST NEW HOME
- WILL UNDERSTAND ROUTINE
- DO NOT EASE OFF TRAINING. MORE IS BETTER!
- WILL START TO BUILD BOND - USE AFFECTION AS A RESOURCE!
- WILL BEGIN TO BUILD GREAT HABITS IF YOU FOLLOW TRAINING CONSISTENTLY

There is a decompression process for dogs entering a new living environment. Every dog is unique and will adjust differently. Allow them to go at their own pace! Patience and consistency is key.
